Mid Autumn celebrations at Harbord Diggers

Harbord Diggers gets set to host the annual Chinese Mid Autumn celebrations, also known as the Moon Festival, from Sunday 27 September to Saturday 3 October.

The Diggers will transform to an Asian theme week with daily Moon Cake sampling and Asian inspired daily specials at Madigan's Bar and Grill from 7pm – 9pm each day.

On Saturday 3 October celebrations kicks into full gear from 5pm with FREE roving entertainment in the Gaming and Main Lounges. A Chinese fortune teller (with interpreter) will predict your future along with free fortune cookies. Gu Zheng, a traditional Chinese harp artist, will also be playing in the club to mark Mid Autumn celebrations.

Harbord Diggers General Manager Andrew Lauridsen said, "The Mid Autumn celebrations mark a significant holiday on the Chinese lunar calendar. Festival attendees will be entertained all week to embrace Chinese culture. Everyone is encouraged to come along to celebrate the seasonal change and a bountiful summer".
