Title: Fuss free entertainment for families!

Summer is well and truly on its way and while most of us are keeping our fingers crossed that the weather will heat up long enough for us to enjoy our weekends; others are looking for new ways to spend time outdoors with friends and family. If queuing for parking close to the beach is not your thing, or driving for hours to reach a family friendly venue just doesn't appeal to you, try looking a little closer to home.

Harbord Diggers Club is set to launch its brand new outdoor deck area in November 2008 which boasts additional undercover café style seating for up to 150 people. Plus it also includes a safe and exciting kids play area with ample room for the little tykes to burn off some of that energy they've been saving up throughout the week.

Taking the whole family out for a bite to eat can be a fuss free experience, provided you take them to the right place. With plenty of free parking and two casual dining options that open straight out onto the new alfresco area, the Harbord Diggers promises comfort and convenience, along with healthy menu options under $10 and kids meals starting from just $6.70. Combine this with Club prices and you'll be hard pressed to find a better deal.

The deck will open to the public in early November with an official opening weekend planned for later in the month. Parents will find plenty of activities to keep the kids occupied during the opening weekend, including jumping castles and a clown as well as the new kids play area. Fuse all of this together with plenty of fresh air and the chance to relax and catch up with friends and you've got yourselves a winning combination.
